

as I cannot tell when I can come But I will come some time This summer if I get along all right and do not get sick.

Well I have nothing of any interest to write you sweet heart.

I saw Lonzo B. not long ago and he asked me about you and also told me where you was and how far from town and what a good time you have been having He told me many things I did not think he knew. But he would not tell me how he found out.

He are attending and exhibition now which commences wednesday night and will play until next Saturday night. 4 nights only now I wish you was here to go. and have a nice time with one who loves you. If I see a chance to go to Texas and go to work I
